Friends of the Murdered Doctor Endeavor

Cincago, May 39 .- There was a prolonged conference in the afternoon at the rooms of State's Attorney Longo-necker between that official and Byron L. Smith, receiver of the Traders' bank, which suspended some months ago, Builiff Mortimer Scanlan and Patrick murder. At the outset a formal request was made of the state's attorney to seize the books of the bank forthwith and was made of the state's attorney to seize the books of the bank forthwith and submit them to the grand jury. In them, it was said, the body would find ample evidence to bear out Cronin's declarations that a certain prominent lrish-American had been guilty of a huge emberzelement of Nationalist funds when a member of the governing bound of the Clan-Na-Gael. In support of the request Scanlan made a long argument. He said that while Alexander Sullivan was a member of the triumvirate he went to Paris and demanded Patrick Egan, then an exile from Ireland and acting a treasurer of the Irish Land league, the sum of $19,000 to be used in carrying out the aims and objects of the Physical Forcemen in the United States. This sum was needed, he said, to furnish extain expeditions that had been planted in a meeting of representative members of the Clan-Na-Gael.

The Sprague Estate.

Factorized by the supreme court trustee of the Sprague estate, vice Chaffee, decensed. The creditors of the estate have been notified that the accounts of the Clan-Na-Gael.

Refused to Pay Over the Money. Egan, Scanlan went on to say, refused to pay over the money, and thereupon Sullivan threatened to disrupt every Irisl society in the United States, adding that a large element was dissatisfied with the management of Irish affairs and on the verge of revolt. A week was consumed in the discussion of the matter, and fiin the discussion of the matter, and fi-nally Egan proposed that the counsel of some of his conferces should be taken. This was satisfactory to Sullivan and Sherdan, the famous No. One of the Phoenix park "removals" and a leader of the Physical Force men in Ireland, was mutually agreed upon. He was summon-ed to Paris by telegraph, and after fully considering the question decided that in order to conclinate all factions of the Clan-Na-Gnel in the United States, it would be better for the money to be paid. would be better for the money to be paid. Thereupon Egan handed over to Sullivan $10,000 of the National League funds. The full amount was brought to Chicago. Scanlan went on to say that several months ago, when the institution went into the sheriff's hands, he obtained permission to make a full examination of the books in the interest of Cronin and other prominent Irishmen. As a result he found that the same of $82,000 had leen deposited to Sullivan's personal credit, but he was unable to learn how it was so deposited except fina general way. The whole amount, moreover, had been drawn out by means of a check.

Then Cronin renewed the charges, and the now famous com-mittee of six was appointed to investi-gate, as has already been reported.

ort vindicating Sulli-A majority report vindicating Sulli-van and signed by four members is already in existence, while Cronin had just before his death completed a minority report in behalf of himself and his colleague, setting forth that the charges had been fully proven. Both of these reports had been intended for the forthcoming convention of the National der's Drug Store. The only place in town League. Scanlan went on to argue that where you can get this delicious and cooling there was a direct connection between these facts and the murder, and in conthese facts and the murder, and in con-clusion repeated his request for an in-vestigation by the grand jury, and of-fered to assist that body in going through the books. Judge Longenecker listened attentively, asking numerous questions, and when Scanlan had concinded he promised to give the question his serious and immediate consideration. Out of this the day was non-productive of developments, although the small army of city and private detectives flitted hither and thither with as much mysterious activity as ever. It was reported during the afternoon that Wood-ruff had confessed that Ice Man Sullivan had hired him to drive the cart in which Unsuccessful efforts were made by Hubbard to induce Detective Chief Just before the grand jury adjourned the chief entered the chamber and held a brief conference with the body, which is supposed to have reference to the Important developments
